Insect-a-clear

The Fly-Shield Solo has been specifically designed for discreet, stylish and effective insect control and is ideally suited not only for domestic use, but also for restaurants, reception areas, coffee shops or sandwich bars, to name but a few.

The main body of the Solo is made from corrosion resistant, anodised aluminium, which not only means it is simple to keep clean but also makes it light and easily portable, if so desired.

By combining its powerful 20w, energy saving ultra violet lamp with its large unobstructed glue board, Insect-a-clear have come up with a truly effective unit
